SIDE NOTES

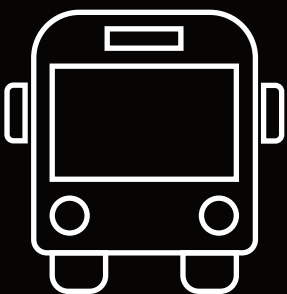

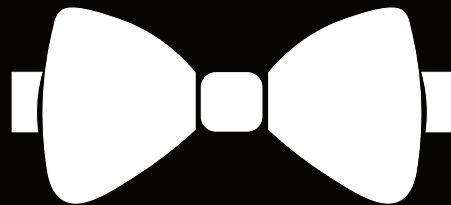

We recommend that you bring your own hygiene products (shampoo, deodorant, brush and toothpaste, soaps, tampons).

It is necessary to bring with you cash for at least the first month of the program. At the end of the month, you will get the payment by the employer, and, in most cases, that will only cover your room and transportation.

In your internships you must dress semi formal or business casual.

Public transportation is $0,35 in the city. Taxis the minimum payment is $ 1,50 and a taxi from the airport is minimum 30 dollars daily hours.

SECURITY

We recommend you take care of yourself, since being alone in Ecuador can be tricky as a foreigner.

HERE ARE SOME TIPS TO KEEP YOU SAFE:

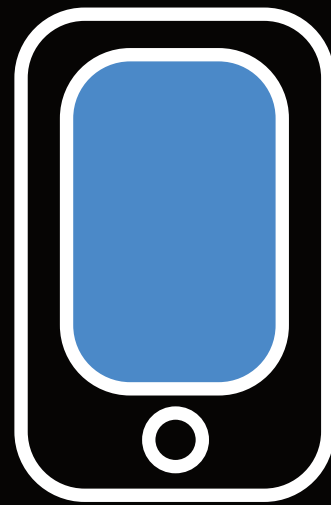

Avoid walking alone by night

Do not bring with you more than 20 dollars cash at once

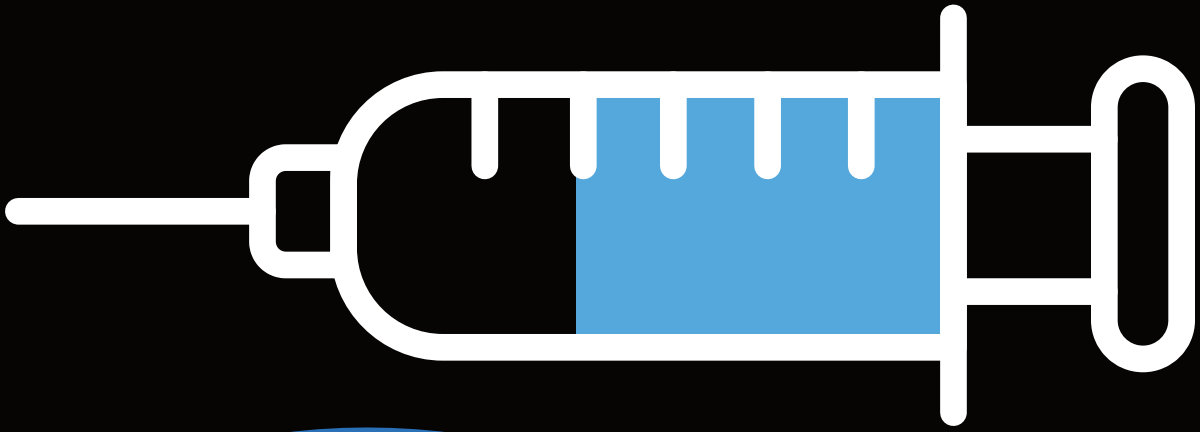

When you are walking or taking public transportation, keep your laptop or cell phone in a safe place to avoid the attention of robbers.

You will need a copy of your passport instead of the original, only take your original passport when you are travelling.

VACCINATION

If you want to travel for tourism to Amazon region to its natural reserves or if your traineeship will be done there, employers require for Laboral purpose that all students must have vaccinations for the following:

Tetanus

Hepatitis A

Yellow Fever

Hepatitis B

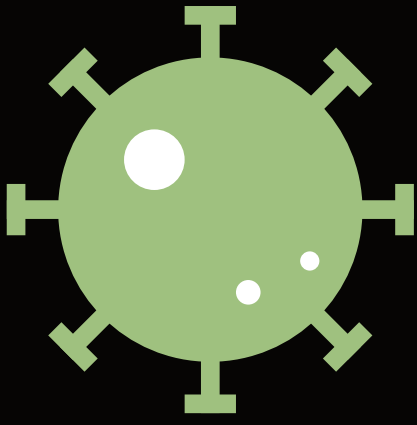

COVID (full dosis)

Typhoid

HEALTH insurance

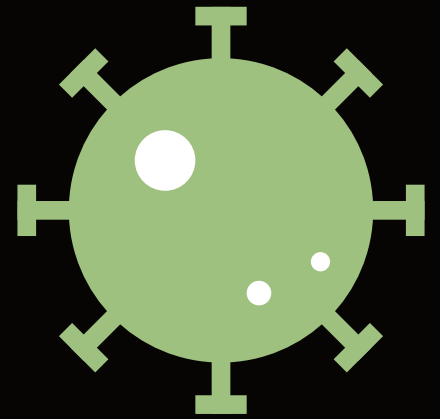

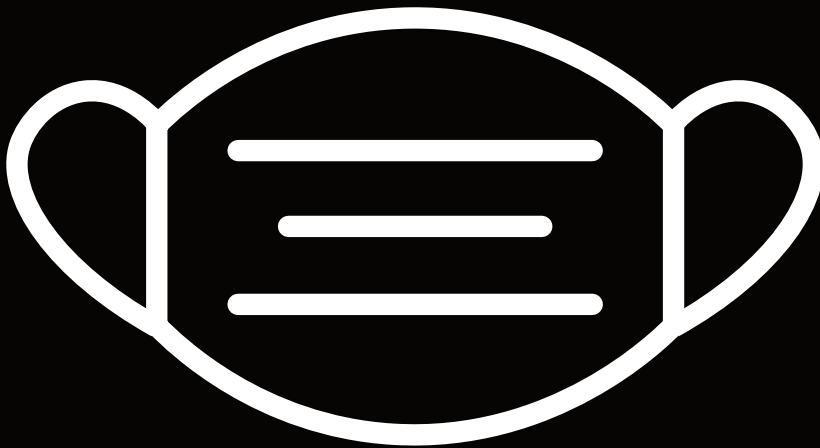

Students must have an International Health Insurance to come, we recommend all the students to know how it is working properly in Ecuador, and what is the process in case of any accidents or diseases.

Covid-19

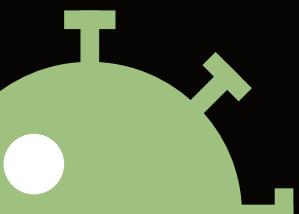

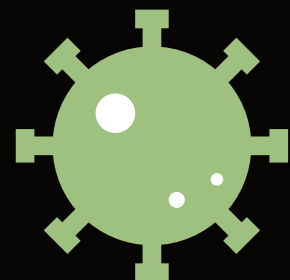

These protocols are subject to change by the Ecuadorian Government. It is recommended to check the official pages.
